ABSTRACT

This report shows activities carried out in my industrial training which took place in Buluba Nyanja farm from 28th – FEB -2022 TO 6th May 2022.

Industrial training is a module of Busitema University Arapai campus carried outside classroom for award of Diploma of Animal Production and Management.

These activities were carried out to impart student with more knowledge and skills which will help them in the field after studies

This report consists of four chapters:

Chapter one is all about introduction of the report i.e. the history of the farm.

Chapter two is about description of the attachment i.e. task description.

Chapter three is about the impact of the attachment i.e. skills gained from industrial training

Chapter four is all about the conclusion and recommendation i.e. the observations in the sectors carried out in industrial training

CHAPTER ONE INTRODUCTION

1.1 FARM BACKGROUND

Buluba Nyanja farm was initiated in 1934 as a support project to the hospital in form of providing food and finance support. It was initiated by the catholic diocese of Jinja and managed by the little sisters of St. Francis of Assisi

1.2 LOCATION

Buluba Nyanja Farm is located in Buluba/Nsinda village west of Mayuge in Lukone parish, Baitambogwe s/county in Mayuge District.it covers 800 hectares of land

1.3 LAND USE TYPE OF BULUBA NYANJA FARM

- Poultry farming
- Fish farming
- Beef and dairy farming
- Forestry
- Crop farming e.g. sugar cane plantation, banana, horticulture etc.
- Settlement
- Piggery

1.4 OBJECTIVE OF BULUBA NYANJA FARM

- To find out the location of Buluba livestock farm
- To find out the land use activities on Buluba livestock farm
- To find out the factors favoring land use activities on Buluba livestock farm
- To find out the problem faced on Buluba livestock farm
- To identify the effect of land use activities on the physical environment on Buluba livestock farm
- To find out the future prospects of the farm

CHAPTER TWO DESCRIPTION OF THE ATTACHMENT

2.1 Familiarization phase

During the first day of reporting on the farm the manager took me in orientation to have an over view of the activities, staffs and some other things under management.

The importance of orientation was

- To know activities done on the farm
- To make me feel at home
- To promote communication with people working on the farm

2.2 Mentoring

The mentoring was good at the farm because at the of the day after work the management decided to give me a cup of milk plus other things
