I carried out my attachment at Kapchorwa municipal council local government in the production department.

Kapchorwa is one of the district in Uganda in the eastern region which borders mbale. It is a farm of decentralization of administration in the country.

Kapchorwa municipal council local government comprises of many departments which include, production , administration finance, planning, health, works among others.

During the course of my industrial training, I was attached to the Kapchorwa municipal council which comprise of crop production and management animal production and management and veterinary department.

I was attached to the district municipal veterinary office and which is department majorly concerned with animal health within the district.

While in the veterinary department, I was attached to Kapchorwa central division, chepskroi ward to carry out meat inspection and subsequent vaccination of poultry against new castle disease (NNCD)

In the inspection, techniques like hand pressing observing, sampling.

Vaccination was thus carried out after data collection and analysis within the veterinary staff.

During the course of meat inspection and data collection I acquired skills which include

- (i) Understanding drugs of choice like new castle vaccine B1 (the drug contains penicillin which are bacterial static) against new castle disease.
  - (ii) Understanding relationship between climate and poultry health such as humid poultry house and pathogen reproduction.
  - (iii) I learned new signs of various disease i.e protozoa diseases, bacterial diseases, fungal diseases.
  - ~~(iv) I had to also 'put theories into practical i.e castration~~
  - (v) I also learned how to associate with the farmers
