DEDICATION

With humble honor, I dedicate this report to my Aunty Buga Winnifred, Dad Ekaju James Andrew, Mummy Akullo Hellen and not forgetting my lovely daughter Akullo Faith Ekaju and family members, relatives and friends for their hard work toward my education, with love and care that they have shown and given me right for my academic career until this level, may the almighty God of heaven bless you ever. I also extend my dedication to my beloved friends e.g. Otilo Isaac Lambert, Elungat James, and my lecturers like Mr. Muyinda Robert, Mrs. Asero, Mr. Muhindo Williams and the entire administration of Busitema University Arapai Campus farm for their positive great work done on issues pertaining my academic progress, my field supervisor for their kind enhancement and offering me an internship (industrial training) place in the farm, may the good Lord our God bless you abundantly as well.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to thank the management and staff of Arapai Farm for the effort that has led to the completion of the industrial training successfully. A special thanks goes to industrial training coordinator Arapai Farm (Dr. Okwany Patrick) for allowing me to carry out my industrial training at the farm. Much appreciation and congratulation goes to the faculty of agriculture and animal sciences of Busitema University, Arapai Campus and the department of agri-business and sustainable rural extension development for releasing student for a short period of 10weeks training that has been successfully accomplished. I would like to extend thanks and honors to every individual who participated financially, academically especially friends, staff of Arapai Farm and other personalities toward successful writing and compilation of this report. Above all I would like to thank almighty God for keeping and protecting me throughout the training and all my entire relative at large may he continue with the spirit forever.
